soth was hard the ball bounced gayly up on the green. Both treated the un-ruly green with the greatest respect and Travis finally won the hole, 4 to 5.
They halved the fifth in 3 and Travis They halved the fifth in 3 and Travis went out in front at the seventh, where he played a great approach and holed a long putt for a 3. At the seventh he made it 2 up, Anderson throwing away the hole by missing a three foot putt, but the compliment was returned on the short eighth. There Anderson made his 3 and left Travis with an eight inch putt to halve the hole, Walking over to the ball Travis hit it a little off the line and missed, Anderson winning the hole. "I didn't expect that," said Anderson as they walked over to the ninth tee. "Neither did I, John." rejoined Travis. "I thought that you were going to give it to me."

As if to make up for the error Travis fan down a fifteen foot putt for a win on the ninth green and was 2 up win on the ninth green and was 2 up once more. He was out in 36 and Anderson's total was 38. The tenth hole was a win for Travis, although for a while it looked as though he had lost it. He cut too deep with his iron in approaching and fell far short of the green. It left a great opening for Anderson, who had driven opening for Anderson, who had driven twenty yards beyond his rival, but the former Boston golfer made a poor shot which flew off to the right and was lucky to get on the lower right hand corner of the green. Travis then played a splendid run up, which left his ball dead to the pin, and Anderson right to dead to the pin, and Anderson tried to over a patch of rough that pro-ed into the green in order to get roll down toward the cup. The second shot and almost played out of bounds, the ball stopping only a foot from the wall. Anderson played a pretry shot to the green and won the hole in 4 to 5. They halved the twelfth in par 3 and on the thirteenth Anderson won

With the long fourteenth shead it with the long fourteenth shead it looked as though Anderson might square the match, but he topped his drive to the rough and had all he could do to halve the hole in 6. He did it with the said of a fine brassey shot, the best placed during the day. On the fifteenth Anderson reached the green with his second shot while Travis was short, and Anderson won the hole, 4 to 5. squaring the match. It was a great uphill fight that Anderson won the hole, 5 to 10 to 10

CUBS HELPLESS IN PINCHES; PERRITT

Giants Take Their First Game in West by 3 to 0-Doyle Hammers Humphries.

FLETCHER, SPIKED, HAS TO RETIRE FROM FRAY

CHICAGO, June 5 .- The Chicago fans rot their first glimpse of the Giants when the Polo Grounders opened their with a victory. Furthermore, they saw the Giants on one of their good days, f r they played a splendid game, burying Roger Bresnahan's championship aspirants under a 3 to 0 score. Idea weather, in fact the best Saturday the Cubs have had at home since the seasor opened, graced the occasion and as a result some 15,000 fans packed Yorkers gave them enough thrills to ppease their baseball appetites.

Two Giants figured prominently in the ist victory the team has chalked up in the West. They were Poll Perritt and Capt. Larry Doyle. Poll twirled his best game of the season, allowing the eague leaders four scattered hits, and while he kept the batters at bay Doyle aid his part by walloping Humphries. Loyle went through the afternoon regis Loyle went through the alternoon registering a perfect batting average. He made four hits, three being for extra bases. One was a triple and two others coubles. Two of these wallops drove lome runs, which ultimately proved more than enough to beat the Cubs.

Peckinpaugh doubled in the New York ninth, Cree and Pipp went out, and Cook doubled. He batted Peck in and Hartzell batted him in "Get in there and pitch right," growled Crawford to Dauss, after the pitcher had hit Boone. Dauss did and Sweeney grounded out.

Dauss did and Sweeney grounded out. Dauss did and Sweeney grou nicked for three hits that brought two tallies over. This wasn't diangerous, but the fourth inning was a slaughter, the Pirates getting more hits in this one inning than in the previous three games. Eleven men went to bat, Hinchman getting a double and a base on balls, while Wagner had a hit and a sacrification of the state of the sacrification of the sacrificatio sacrifice in the inning. Six hits, aided by an error at a critical time, produced seven runs, and it was enough for Dell.,

The Dodgers seemed to be struck with stage fright, for they made enough er-rors and misjudgments to throw away any game without a hit being made. Two more runs were made while Cadore was in the box, and when the smoke of battle had cleared away the Buccaneers had the Dodgers' scalps to the tune of eleven runs and sixteen hits. Robble says Monday he will have Jack Coombs in the box. The score:

To-day's Schedule.

That almost anything is possible in baseball was indicated in yesterday's game at Washington Park when the Terrapins humbled the Tip Tops by a to one in the last half of the game, re- ball

Finis Wilson, Brooklyn's southpaw. was chiefly responsible for this unlooked for ending of the pastime. His lapses were costly as well as numerous. He were costly as well as numerous. He filtered away an advantageous lead through wildness that at times approached carelessness.

Brooklyn fell on George Suggs for four runs in the third inning by bunching two singles and as many doubles with a pass. The last Brooklyn run was chalked up in the fifth from two singles and a double. A smart double play in this round as well as another in the ninth cancelled the full value of clean hitting. Baltimore was lucky to turn the double killings at the proper moment.

PITTERURG, June 5.—A slightly built Wilson was wild in the third, but was saved when Land doubled Mcdaddy of the Brooklyn Dodgers here to-day, just as he had been in Brooklyn single gave the Terrapins only a brace a few days ago, and shut them out by a score of 11 to 0. THOUGH no game is scheduled officially in the American League to-day, New York will play in Detroit. The two teams departed for the City of the Straits shortly after yesterday's slaughter at the Polo Grounds to settle, one of the two contests postponed on account of cold weather during New York's recent visit to Detroit. It will cost each club approximately $600 to make the hurried trip on limited trains, as they must be back here for a game tomorrow afternoon. This, however, will prove a profitable expenditure with fair weather.

Tires." -Mr. Squeegee

A man is a good deal like a tire. His greatness depends on the crowd .

The really great man-the leader-literally has to meet all comers in the contest for public approval. Any tire is the best tire in a crowd of inferiors. But nowadays a tire has to be extraordinary if it is to make and hold a record for superior service and mileage economy.

It is the extraordinary quality of Diamond Tires that has given them their deserved pre-eminence. Send for our book of letters from dealers who

It tells how more than 99 out of every 100 of the more than half a million Diamond Tires sold last year gave maximum service at minimum mileage cost. It is yours for the asking.
